

Travel Health and Safety Information

The Center for Disease Control (CDC) provides detailed Health and Travel Vaccination Information for travelers to South Africa. The U.S. Department of State provides country-specific information about Safety and Security for South Africa. Below are links and information for these web sites and information about local immunizations:

- Center for Disease Control (CDC): http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/traveler/none/south-africa?s_cid=ncezid-dgmg-travel-single-001 Contact CDC with questions by telephone at 1 800-232-4636.
- U.S. Department of State: <http://travel.state.gov/content/passports/english/country/south-africa.html>.
- Local Immunization Information: Contact your family physician about travel immunizations for the South Africa Expedition. Local travel immunization information is provided below.

Immunizations In Orange County	Instructions	Additional Information
Health Care Agency Travel Clinic Orange County Health Department 1725 W. 17 th Street Santa Ana, CA 92706 Phone: 1-800-914-4887 Web Info: http://ochealthinfo.com/phs/about/family/iz	Appointments are required. Call for Appointment 2 or 3 months in advance at 1-800-914-4887 . To make an appointment, you must be an Orange County resident. Hours: Mon. through Fri. 8:00 to 3:30 Closed daily, 11:45 to 12:45	Immunizations are provided at low cost. Information about cost can be found at the website on the left or by calling the phone number on the left. For more information call the Health Referral Line at (800) 564-8448
A nearby Walgreens or CVS Pharmacy may provide vaccinations.	Check online for locations at www.cvs.com or www.walgreens.com or walk into a nearby location.	Medical insurance may be accepted. Contact the location near you for information about insurance coverage and prices.
Your Health Care Provider *	* Contact your health care provider to determine which immunizations are appropriate. Find out if your doctor provides immunizations and how much immunizations cost. Travel immunizations are not a covered expense by many health insurance providers. However, some health insurance providers report that travel immunizations are a covered benefit with a member's typical co-payment.	